

Report
on
Dr. Neelu Singhvi Sancheti Memorial Lecture
November 13, 2021

The Department of Education, Loreto College under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Loreto College organized the Dr. Neelu Singhvi Sancheti Memorial Lecture on November 13, 2021 at 4.30 p.m. The programme was attended by the family members of Dr. Neelu Singhvi Sancheti, all the students and faculty members of the Departments of Education, B.Ed., faculty members from Loreto College and the Student Council members.

The Webinar was attended by 106 participants. Special lecture was delivered by Mrs. Sudha Murty, Chairperson, Infosys Foundation. The programme commenced with a prayer service followed by pre-recorded presentation by Mrs. Murty.

Objectives of the Lecture

- Generate awareness among the students that the feeling of nationalism which can only gain ground when the young people are made aware of their glorious past to which they belong.
- Highlight the responsibility of the education system to enlighten and educate the students about the history and culture of their nation.
- Orient the students and initiate in them respect for their cultural heritage with a spirit of patriotism.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of the Lecture the participants were able to:

- Understand that to become effective citizens of tomorrow, it is not only enough to receive pure subjective knowledge, but to respect their cultural heritage with a spirit of patriotism.
- Gain awareness that the study of history resonates in each one of us the battles fought, the rights demanded in connection with ones motherland.

FEEDBACK SUMMARY REPORT

Total No. of Respondents: 106

- ☐ Excellent: 66
- ☐ Very Good: 29
- ☐ Good: 11

Report
on Unputdownable
World Down Syndrome Day (March 21)
March 24, 2022

The Department of Education, Loreto College in collaboration with MENTAID, Kolkata under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Loreto College celebrated the World Down Syndrome Day (March 21) on March 24, 2022. The theme of the programme was Unputdownable.

The Webinar was attended by 105 participants. The resource persons were Teachers, parents, students and other stakeholders from Mentaaid and students from the Department of Education, Loreto College. The programme was a part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav.

Objectives of the Webinar

- Spread awareness among the participants about Down Syndrome.
- Highlight the achievements of people with Down Syndrome.
- Promote the spirit of inclusion among the participants.
- Encourage active participation of the students in creating awareness about Down Syndrome in specific and disability in general.

Learning Outcomes

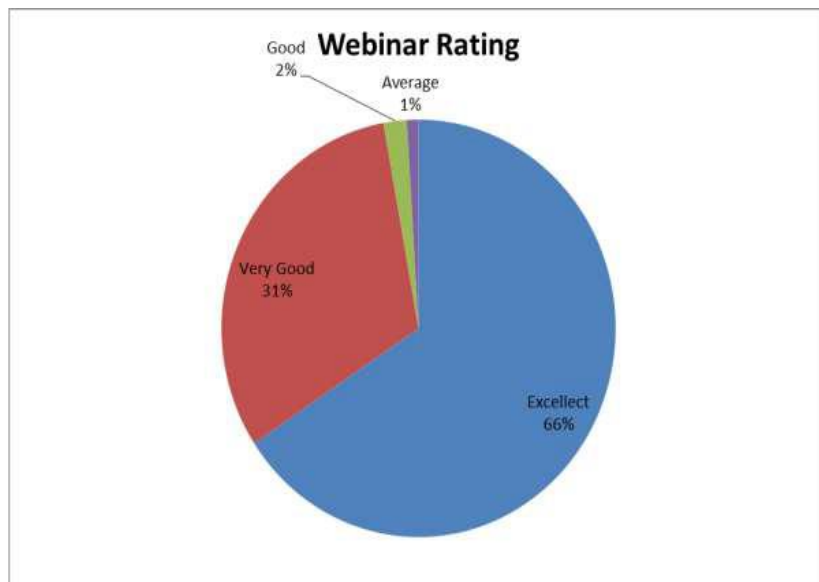

At the end of the Webinar the participants were able to:

- Gain awareness about Down Syndrome.
- Understand the achievements of people with Down Syndrome.
- Gain insight into essence of inclusion.
- Develop the need to become agents for creating awareness about Down Syndrome among the masses.

FEEDBACK SUMMARY REPORT

Total No. of Respondents: 105

- Excellent: 69
- Very Good: 33
- Good: 2
- Average: 1

Report
on
Unfolding the Mystery of Autism
World Autism Day (April 02),
April 04, 2022

The Department of Education, Loreto College in collaboration with MENTAID, Kolkata under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Loreto College celebrated the World Autism Day (April 02) on April 04, 2022. The theme of the programme was Unfolding the Mystery of Autism.

The Webinar was attended by 71 participants. The resource persons were Teachers, parents, students and other stakeholders from Mentaaid and students from the Department of Education, Loreto College.

Objectives of the Webinar

- Spread awareness among the participants about Autism
- Highlight the achievements of people with Autism
- Promote the spirit of inclusion among the participants
- Encourage active participation of the students in creating awareness about Autism in specific and disability in general

The image displays a promotional poster for the webinar on the left and six video thumbnails on the right. The poster features a green background with icons of eyes and brains, and text including the department name, event title, date, and registration link. The video thumbnails show various participants and activities, each with a play button icon and a filename below it.

Thumbnail Description	Filename
Participant Ankit Mondal	Ankit Mondal.mp4
Participant Barnali Mallick (Archis...)	Barnali Mallick (Archis...
Participant Sagnik Ganguli	Sagnik Ganguli.mp4
Participant Soumik Samaddar	Soumik Samaddar.mp4
Participant Soumil Natua	Soumil Natua.mp4
Participant Subhrasankha Nanda	Subhrasankha Nanda.m...

Learning Outcomes

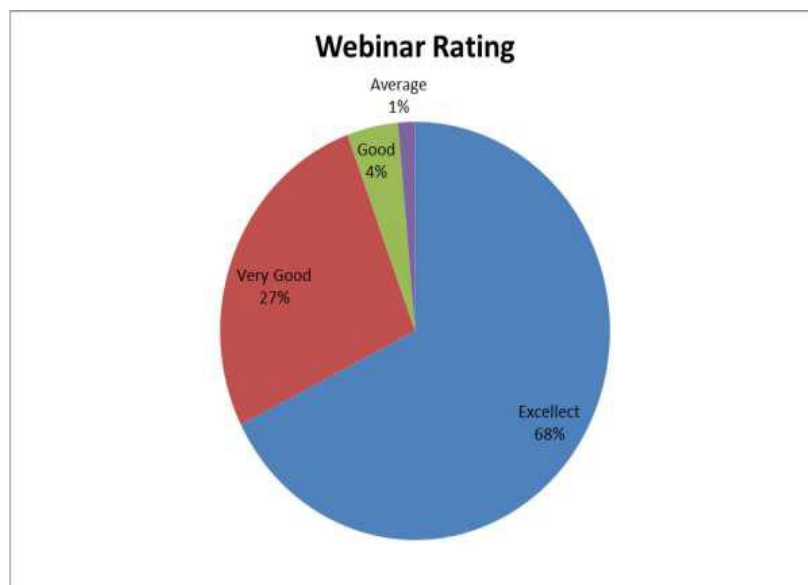

At the end of the Webinar the participants were able to:

- Gain awareness Autism
- Understand the achievements of people with Autism
- Gain insight into essence of inclusion
- Develop the need to become agents for creating awareness about Autism among the masses

FEEDBACK SUMMARY REPORT

Total No. of Respondents: 71

- Excellent: 48
- Very Good: 19
- Good: 3
- Average: 1

Report
on
Debating Child Marriage in India: Force, Freedom and Social Protection
Date: April 09, 2022

The Department of Education, Loreto College under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Loreto College organized a talk on Debating Child Marriage in India: Force, Freedom and Social Protection, April 09, 2022.

The Webinar was attended by 105 participants. The resource persons were the Resource persons for the programme were Ms. Manabi Majumdar, Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta and Ms. Ishita Mukhopadhyay, Professor, Department of Economics, University of Calcutta and President, Indian Association for Women's Studies.

Objectives of the Webinar

- Spread awareness among the participants about the prevalent scenario of child marriage in different parts of the country.
- Highlight the detrimental effects of this social practice on the mental and physical health of the youth.
- To inform about the existing legal and institutional provisions to combat child marriage.

The image displays a promotional poster for a webinar and two screenshots from a video call. The poster, titled "DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION In association with IQAC, LORETO COLLEGE", features a graphic of a young girl's face and a sign that reads "Say NO to Child Marriage". The event details are: "Debating Child Marriage In India Force, Freedom and Social Protection" on "April 09, 2022 4.30 PM IST" via "GOOGLE MEET". The resource persons listed are "MS. MANABI MAJUMDAR, Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta" and "PROF. ISHITA MUKHOPADHYAY, Professor, Department of Economics, & President, Indian Association for Women's Studies". A "REGISTER" button with the URL "https://www.loretocollege.in/webinar21-45/" is also present. Below the poster are two video call windows: the left one shows Prof. Ishita Mukhopadhyay and the right one shows Ms. Manabi Majumdar.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of the Webinar the participants were able to:

- Gain awareness about the prevalent scenario of child marriage in different parts of the country and allied issues related to them
- Understand the detrimental effects of this social practice on the mental and physical health of the youth
- Analyze the legal and institutional provisions to combat child marriage

FEEDBACK SUMMARY REPORT

Total No. of Respondents: 68

- Excellent: 53
- Very Good: 11
- Good: 4

