

Sumedha Verma, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science

2019- Presented a paper titled Influence of Culture and Religion: The Emergence of Hindutva as a Political Ideology at International Seminar on Culture, Thought and Religion: Edges and Exchanges organised by Departments of Philosophy, History, English and IQAC, East Calcutta Girls' College on January 28, 2019

2020- Presented a paper titled Economic Agenda in Election Manifestos: the role of ideology in economy at an Online International Conference on Emerging Opportunities and Challenges in Indian Economy (An Interdisciplinary Approach) organised by Rizvi College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mumbai in collaboration with Faculty of Law Parul University, Vadodara on October 18, 2020

2021- Presented a paper titled Media and Politics: A Case Study of the Trinamool Congress Campaign in the 2021 Assembly Elections at an International Conference on the Role of Media in Sustainable Development Organised by Kristu Jayanti College, Bangalore on March 16, 2021 Co-authored and presented