

Dr. Sukanya Mitra

Assistant Professor, Department of History

Presentations

1. Presented paper titled, “Post-Colonial Nation Building and the Urban Imaginary” at an interdisciplinary conference titled, From Colonial Modernity to Decolonisation: The British Empire and Beyond, organized by the School of Humanities, University of Auckland, September 15-16, 2023
2. Presented paper titled, “Researching Contemporary History through an Exploration of Post-colonial Urban Space”, at a conference on Challenges of Researching the Present; Themes, Methods and Archives of Contemporary History organized by the Centre for Contemporary History, Bankura University, March 21-22, 2023
3. Presented paper titled, Rethinking the Peri-Urban: Space, Capital and the Making of a New Township, at the Multidisciplinary International Conference on Cultural, Urban & Environmental Landscapes: Geographical Perspectives, organized by the Department of Geography, Osmania University, Hyderabad, February 8-10, 2021
4. Presented paper titled, Regulation of Space and the Nature of Negotiations: The Workings of the Calcutta Improvement Trust (CIT) between 1930s and 1950s, at a panel discussion on CIT and After: Twentieth Century Planning Endeavors in Calcutta, organized by India Foundation for the Arts (IFA) in collaboration with Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta, July 5, 2019
5. Presented paper titled, From New Town to Smart City: Vision, Conflicts and the Politics of Development in Rajarhat, at an International Seminar on the theme, The City as a Site of the Political: Themes in Urban History, Infrastructure and Culture, organized by M.S. Merion-R Tagore International Centre of Advanced Studies in the Humanities and Social Sciences and the Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta, December 15-17, 2016
6. Delivered Talk titled, Making Meanings: Analyzing the Built Environment of Contemporary Calcutta, at Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, Teen Murti House, New Delhi, September 1, 2015